PROGRAM

7:30-8:00 Registration/ Hospitality/Vendors
8:00-9:30 Welcome & Kickoff Session:

Barb White, Early Childhood Librarian, Branch Manager

The Frugal Educator: Authentic Teaching and Learning With Found Materials

"I look. I search. I hope to see something that appeals to me. Something unique--or maybe not. Buttons, milk caps, straws--the lot. A blue-green shape just caught my eye. I don't think I can pass it by!"--Rita Harris

Some of the most important classroom tools you will ever need or use are in your junk drawer, in your recycle bin, and in your lunch box. Discover the possibilities in materials for learning across all content areas and the potential in all of us to see beauty and experience joy in the world that is all around us.

9:30-10:00 Door Prizes/Vendors

10:00-11:30 Session I

A. Keynote Breakout: Beautiful Stuff: A Guided

Exploration: Be prepared to discover, or re-discover, the aesthetic self that's inside of each of us! Continue your investigation of the role found materials can play in your classroom, including the how-to of exploring "stuff" with young children. * LIMITED TO 12 Registrations*

Presenter: Barb White

B. Shake, Rattle, and Roll: Music and Movement

Activities for Children: Learn fun ways to incorporate music and movement activities into your storytime programs. Presenter: Anne Marie Savoie, Akron Summit County Public Library

C. Grantseeking Basics

Are you a representative of a nonprofit organization? New to fundraising? This introductory session will provide an overview of the funding research process for those seeking grants from foundations, corporations, and grantmaking public charities. The session will also cover what you need to have in place before you seek a grant and resources for your grantseeking efforts

Presenter: Nancy Mohler, Akron Summit County Public Library

D. From a Child's View: Learning about and building an understanding of different cultures help children develop positive attitudes about differences in people and themselves. Come and learn how to effectively integrate that understanding into your classroom, curriculum and daily programming. This session will help you learn how to use resources available to validate each child and their family even if they are uniquely different.

Presenter: Yetty Michaels, U of A CDC

Ctrl

E. How to Stretch Your Food Dollars

The importance of planning healthy meals and snacks, making a grocery list, saving money by using coupons and comparing prices e.g. national brands vs. generic or store brands, learning about nutrition facts labels, unit pricing, and more.

Presenter: Pat Rossi, Program Assistant for the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP), OSUE

F. A Recipe for Successful Inclusion

Have you ever struggled to include a child with special needs into the everyday routines of your classroom? If so, this is the session for you. We will take you through a list of "ingredients" that when blended together will give you the ultimate "recipe" for successful inclusion. Presenters: Jennifer Musson
